This class offers hope and guidance in the midst of confusion to adult victims of childhood sexual abuse. This is an intensely personal and specific look at this most 'soul deadening' form of abuse. Personal, because it may be affecting you, your spouse, a close friend or neighbor. Specific, because it goes well beyond the general issues and solutions discussed in other books.

This program is designed for adults whose problems stem from substance abuse. As an individual enters this program, he or she must be motivated to work toward changing their lifestyle and becoming free of alcohol and chemical addiction. This program is accessible regardless of age, religion, sex, ethnic origin, sexual preference, marital status, or physical and/or mental disability. It is a court-managed, alcohol/drug intervention treatment program, designed to provide a cost-effective alternative to traditional criminal case processing.

Division of Long Term Services and Supports (formally Adult Services and Aging)

We provide in-home services to low income, elderly, and disabled individuals. Services available are homemaker, personal care (bathing assistance), nursing, medical supplies, and nutritional supplements. The individuals are assessed to determine the services needed. Long Term Services and Supports is also a referral agency for community resources. The Ombudsman program provides advocacy services for individuals in assisted-living nursing facilities.

The SMFS program is to promote healthy Military Families, who are self-reliant during both deployment and non-deployment, through education, outreach services and partnerships with community organizations. The SMFS team also provides referrals to other programs and resources, crisis assistance, and other support. We promote Family wellness through benefits and programs available for service members and their families. Many of our programs provide ongoing support to veterans, military retirees, and their families. Programs that encompass the Service Member and Family Support Division are as follows:

- Family Readiness
- Family Assistance Center
- Airman & Family Readiness Center
- Yellow Ribbon/Reintegration
- Child and Youth Program
- Employer Support of the Guard and

Reserve

- Military Funeral Honors
- Survivor Outreach Services
- Military OneSource
- Suicide Prevention Program
- Transition Assistance Advisor
- Comprehensive Soldier Fitness
- Other Support Organizations
 - Office of the Chaplain
 - SexualHarassment/ Assault Response & Prevention

Email: candice.l.bloom.ctr@mail.mil
The goal of the SDNG Child & Youth Program is to support the social, emotional, and academic needs of military children and youth throughout the state. This is done through developing and implementing programs and activities that promote leadership and character development, build confidence, facilitate connection between other youth, and to help them to better understand their role as a military child. The Child and Youth Program also provides resources and information to youth, their families, and communities, and partners with other local and national organizations serving youth as well.
